APPLIED COMPUTER SCIENCE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA
April, 2004
Amended 2008, 2009, 2011, 2017, and 2023

The IT Alliance is established to provide direct and effective communication between the information technology profession/practitioner and the academic computer information systems/computer science environment.

BYLAWS OF THE IT ALLIANCE

Article I

A. Purposes

1. To provide a channel of communication between the Department of Management and Information Sciences (MNGT & IS) and information technology practitioners.
2. To participate with and provide counsel to the Department of Management and Information Sciences (MNGT & IS) regarding objectives, strategies, goals, curriculum development, problems, and opportunities.
3. To promote and participate in appropriate business-faculty-student interaction activities and programs.
4. To assist with the placement of graduates.
5. To assist with Intern/Co-op placement.
6. To support and assist the Department in the development of various forms of financial resources.

B. Organization

1. The Chair of the IT Alliance and the Chair-Elect are to be nominated by the Executive Committee and elected for a two-years term by a majority of the voting members present at a duly called meeting of the Alliance. The Chair of the IT Alliance is also the Chair of the Executive Committee of the IT Alliance. The Chair will be an ex-officio member of the Romain College of Business Board of Advisors.
2. The Secretary of the IT Alliance is the College of Business Coordinator of External Relations.
3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Chair, Chair-Elect, immediate Past Chair of the IT Alliance, the Secretary, and the USI Department of Management and Information Sciences (MNGT & IS)
4. The IT Alliance may create standing committees as needed which will be instituted by a majority vote of the members of the Alliance present at a duly called meeting. Ad hoc

Article II

Members

The IT Alliance shall consist of the following members:

1. Members originally appointed to the Alliance and those subsequently reappointed or appointed under the provisions of these Bylaws. Members ordinarily will be high-level IT professionals.
2. The Department of Management and Information Sciences (MNGT & IS) Chair, the College of Business Dean, the Chair of the Romain College of Business Board of Advisors, and the Coordinator of External Relations of the College of Business of the University of Southern Indiana serve as ex-officio members of the Alliance. Additional individuals may be appointed as ex-officio members by the chair of the Alliance. The President of the USI ACM Student Chapter shall be extended full membership to the IT Alliance.
3. The IT Alliance will consist of at least twelve (12) but not more than twenty-five (25) members.
4. All members, other than ex-officio and those specified under Article II, Section 2, shall be elected for three-year memberships. To provide continuity and even the load of nominations required, effort will be made to stagger the three-year membership terms where only roughly one-third of the memberships expire each year.
5. A member of the IT Alliance may be removed by a two-thirds majority vote of those present at a duly called meeting of the Alliance. The proposed removal must be on the agenda of the meeting at which said action is to take place.
6. IT Alliance members, including ex-officio and those specified under Article II, Section 2, are expected to be active contributors. If a member misses two (2) consecutive Alliance meetings and fails to inform the Alliance chair or Administrative Assistant, the Membership Committee will contact the member to determine their interest in continuing as an Alliance member. If a member misses three (3) consecutive Alliance meetings, the member will be recommended by the Membership Committee for removal as specified under Article II, Section 5.

A. Chair

1. To preside at all meetings of the IT Alliance.
2. To submit to the IT Alliance a list of members willing to serve on committees.
3. To appoint standing and ad hoc committees as may be required for the resolution of matters not already covered by these Bylaws. Such appointments shall be subject to the approval of the IT Alliance.

Article VI

Committees of the IT Alliance

There shall be an Executive Committee of the IT Alliance composed of the Chair, the Chair-elect, the Immediate Past Chair, and Secretary of the Alliance and the Chair of the Department of Management and Information Sciences.

The IT Alliance shall establish the standing committees as provided in Article I, Section B, Paragraph 5. The Chair of the Alliance shall appoint ad hoc committees as may be required subject to the approval by a majority vote of those present at a duly called meeting of the Alliance. All committees shall report to the Alliance at the regular meetings and at special meetings when appropriate.

The standing committees of the IT Alliance are as follows:

1. Executive Committee
2. Finance Committee/Scholarship Committee
3. Membership Committee
4. Other ad hoc committees will be formed as needed at beginning of each academic year.

The procedure for forming the committees shall be as follows:

1. The Chair of the IT Alliance shall submit a list of names of members willing to serve on committees to the Executive Committee. The committees so formed will be approved by the Executive Committee.
2. The Chair of the IT Alliance shall appoint a committee chair.
3. A quorum for any committee meeting shall be three members.

Article VII

Amendments to Bylaws

1. These Bylaws may be amended at any duly held meeting of the IT Alliance. Notice of the proposed changes must be on the agenda of the meeting at which the changes are to be considered.
2. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws shall be referred to the Chair of the IT Alliance for inclusion on the agenda of the next regular meeting.
3. A majority vote of the members present at a duly called meeting of the board shall be required for the Bylaws to be amended.
