

+ 0 6 ' 4 (# 6 * * 7 0 6
 # 0 5 9 ' 4 - ' ;

All answers can be found by walking or carting around town; be sure to read publicbase a Public Arbr Historytour book or ask the Historic New Harmony Interpreters at the Atheneum if you are stuck!

- x If you take pictures and post them, be sure to tag us @historicnewharmony and use #utopia1814 #visionofutopia #visitnewharmony
- x Please be respectful of all locations and properties
- x Be mindful of traffic and pedestrian laws

While you're hunting, talk to your group members! What ~~th~~ ~~fa~~ ideologies are represented among you? What do "interfaith" efforts mean to you? Why are they important?

Happy Hunting from Historic New Harmony!

Question	Answer
This architecturally significant building is meant to be "a place of literary and scientific learning" and is the start of our historic tours in New Harmony.	Atheneum New Harmony's Atheneum is the visitor center for New Harmony, Indiana. It is named for the Greek Athenaion, which was a temple dedicated to Athena in ancient Greece. New Harmony's Atheneum architect was Richard Meier.
There are two circular structures in town, one sits the south edge and the other at the north western edge, which are made of hedges or stone, and promote reflection and spiritual contemplation. What are they?	Labyrinths North Western Cathedral labyrinth South Edge Harmonist labyrinth (hedge)
What structure was our stone path Cathedral Labyrinth modeled after?	Chartre's Cathedral labyrinth in France
The 6 petals of the flower created in the center of Cathedral Labyrinth are meant to represent six spiritual realms. What are they?	1 - Mineral, 2- Vegetation/plant, 3- Animal, 4- Humankind, 5 -Angelic/spiritual, 6 - Mystery/Unknown
In a few short sentences, describe the metaphor the labyrinths create about life and spirituality.	Walking the labyrinth becomes a psychological and meditative focal point where the individual can transform their spiritual and psychology journey, into a meditative and physical activity within the environment.

The Orpheus Fountain at the Cathedral Labyrinth | The lyre: a string instrument known for its use in the shape of what ancient stringed instrument used Greek classical antiquity and later periodshē lyre by Orpheus of Greek Mythology to tame wild beast:

What is the title and who is the author of this poem that can be found in the Roofless Church?

Inside the New Harmony Inn Entry House there is intricate and colorful painting in the round chapel. Name the eight Archangels depicted.

Michael, 8^h Day, Barachiel, Jegudiel, Selaphiel, Ouriel, Raphael, Gabriel.

At Tillich Park, behind the New Harmony Inn, complete in their created glory in their tragedy and in their this statement "Man and Nature belong _____ salvation"

What does the poem _____, found at the pond waterfall behind the New Harmony Inn, mean to you?
The title of the sculpture in front of the Barre Abbey, _____, comes from the combination of two Hebrew words: _____, meaning _____; and _____, meaning _____.	“peace”; and lev, meaning “heart.”
What is the name of the red painted steel sculpture located on the front lawn of The New Harmony Inn? It was designed by Larry Reising and fabricated by Tom and Elmer Helfrich, all of Posey County, Indiana. Arch Abbot Timothy Sweeney of St. Meinrad Archabbey presided at the dedication.	Sky Dance
Ninth century Woodland Culture Native Americans are buried in New Harmony. Where can their burial mounds be found?	Within the Harmonist Cemetery
From where did the bricks that make the wall of the Harmonist Cemetery come?	From the second Harmonist brick cruciform church with the Door of Promise entrance.

Why are there no headstones in the Harmonist Cemetery?

Father George Rapp, the founder of New Harmony, was the founder of what religious sect?

At Holy Angels Park, read aloud and contemplate “Declaration Toward a Global Ethic” and finish the closing sentence, “We commit ourselves to this global ethic...” Sketch the sculpture in the space to the right.	To understanding one another, and to solidly beneficial, peace fostering, and nature friendly ways of life.
At Playtopia in Murphy Park, what is the front gate entrance called? And for what is it named?	The Door of Promise from the second Harmonist brick cruciform church
The _____ built by the Harmonists was described by John Melish in 1822, “This was a most elegant flower garden with various hedgerows disposed in such a manner as to puzzle people to get into the little temple, emblematic of Harmony, in the middle. It represents the difficulty of arriving at harmony....”	Harmonist labyrinth (hedge)

